DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's amendments filed April 4, 2006 have been entered. Claims 6, 8-10 are pending.

The outstanding rejections under 35 USC 102(b) are withdrawn in view of the amendments filed April 4, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO98/43624 (English equivalent US 6,194,467 ('467) is also provided) as evidenced by Merck Manual, 16th ed., 1992, pages 1106-1110).

'467 teaches a method of treating diabetes with the compounds of formula (I), in a dosage of 2mg, which is formulated as beverage (see the abstract for example, also col. 12-13, Example 4). Diabetic peripheral neuropathy is a well-known complication of diabetes mellitus (page 1110). Therefore, employing the compound of formula I would inherently enhance the herein claimed growth factor production.

Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO98/41196 (English equivalent US 6,518,317 ('317) is also provided).

'317 teaches a method of treating hepatitis with compounds of formula I, in a dose of 2mg, formulated as beverage (See col. 22-23, Example 8).

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
